

Online AMI 6-12 Assistants Certificate Course

International Certificate Course for assistants to Montessori elementary teachers.

The course is also suitable for administrators of schools and parents.

Goal of the Course: The intention of the international AMI Assistants Certificate Course is to help interested adults become able assistants in a Montessori Elementary Classroom. In a Montessori classroom, the assistant supports the lead teacher and helps him/her to create and retain balance. He/she observes children and knows when to intervene and when to withhold from helping. He/she knows how to support children in developing independence and has a deep understanding of Montessori's approach to freedom and discipline. He/she is a great supporter for the lead teacher and for the child.

Trainers: Cordula Arana, Switzerland

Duration: 60 hours of lectures and independent work total. 9 additional hours of obligatory observations. Specific instructions on how to observe will be given during the Course, taking into account the restrictions which may be imposed by Covid 19.
